CAPITOL TITLE INSURANCE AGENCY
Benjamin Woolf, Vice President

UTAH INSURANCE DEPARTMENT
M. Gale Lemmon
Assistant Attorney General

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and information in the file, the Presiding Officer makes the following Findings of Fact:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On or about June 16, 2006, Respondent Capitol Title Insurance Agency conducted an escrow closing through its agent Benjamin Woolf in a buy-sell real estate transaction for property located in the State of Utah.

2. The HUD 1 settlement statement showed a gift of equity from the seller to the buyer in the amount of $23,000.00, and the closing instructions from the lender provided that “there must be no other liens against the property other than those shown on page 1 [which showed only the lender’s first mortgage], unless approved by us in writing”, and an addendum to those instructions that provided that the borrower needed to supply “a copy of gift letter to include: amount of gift, relationship of the donor to the borrower(s), and no repayment necessary.”

3. In connection with this real estate transaction, there existed a seller financing addendum to the purchase agreement for the same amount that was shown as a gift of equity on the HUD 1 settlement statement. The seller financing addendum was not disclosed to the lender by either the buyer or seller.

4. Despite the representation on the HUD 1 settlement statement showing a gift of equity and the instructions from the lender, Respondent’s agent, Benjamin Woolf, failed to disclose the existence of the seller financing agreement to the lender and prepared a trust deed from the buyer to the seller in the amount of $31,972.29 which was not included on the HUD 1 settlement statement.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and Findings of Fact, the Presiding Officer enters the following Conclusions of Law:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. An agency is responsible for the acts of its agent in performance of that agent's duties under Utah Code Annotated § 31A-23a-302(7).

3. In failing to disclose the existence of seller financing to the lender when it knew the lender was not aware of that financing and especially where there existed specific lender instructions that no other liens were to exist, Respondent violated its fiduciary duty to the lender and participated in perpetrating a fraud on the lender.

4. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-402 (West 2009) states in part:

(1)(a)(I) Any of the following may not make or cause to be made any communication that contains false or misleading information, relating to an insurance product or contract, any insurer, or any licensee under this title, including information that is false or misleading because it is incomplete:

(ii) As used in Subsection (1), "false or misleading information" includes:

(B) with intent to deceive a person examining it:

(I) filing a false report;

(II) making a false entry

(III) willfully refraining from making a proper entry in a record.

2. Respondent violated the above provision on June 16, 2006 when it provided incomplete, false, or misleading information in an escrow closing.

3. An administrative forfeiture in the amount of $2500.00 and probation for a period of 12 months is appropriate under the circumstances of this case.
