General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:

R590-102. Insurance Department Fee Payment Rule

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change (Why is the agency submitting this filing?):

This rule is being amended to clarify certain fees charged by the department.

4. Summary of the new rule or change (What does this filing do? If this is a repeal and reenact, explain the substantive differences between the repealed rule and the reenacted rule):

The amendments clarify the total fee for a late assessment paid by a guaranteed asset protection provider, clarify that the annual health insurance actuarial review assessment is appropriated by the legislature, and remove a fee for accessing the department's rate and form filing database because the database is freely available on the department's website.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

There is no anticipated cost or savings to the state budget. The late assessment fee is already being collected, the rate and form database fee is not being collected because the information is freely available on the department's website, and the actuarial review change merely provides clarification.

B) Local governments:

There is no anticipated cost or savings to local governments. Local governments are not subject to these fees.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to small businesses. The late assessment fee is already being collected, the rate and form database fee is not being collected because the information is freely available on the department's website, and the actuarial review change merely provides clarification.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to non-small businesses. The late assessment fee is already being collected, the rate and form database fee is not being collected because the information is freely available on the department's website, and the actuarial review change merely provides clarification.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. The late assessment fee is already being collected, the rate and form database fee is not being collected because the information is freely available on the department's website, and the actuarial review change merely provides clarification.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for any affected persons. The late assessment fee is already being collected, the rate and form database fee is not being collected because the information is freely available on the department's website, and the actuarial review change merely provides clarification.

G) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)
