General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:
   R590-124. Loss Information Rule

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change (Why is the agency submitting this filing?):
   The rule is being changed as a result of Executive Order 2021-12. During the review of this rule, the department discovered a number of minor issues that needed to be amended.

4. Summary of the new rule or change (What does this filing do? If this is a repeal and reenact, explain the substantive differences between the repealed rule and the reenacted rule):
   The majority of the changes are being done to fix style issues to bring the rule text more in line with current rulewriting standards. Others are changes to make the language of the rule more clear, and the Severability section is being updated to use the department's current language. The changes do not add, remove, or change any regulations or requirements.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:
   A) State budget:
   There is no anticipated cost or savings to the state budget. The changes are largely clerical in nature, and will not change how the department functions.

   B) Local governments:
   There is no anticipated cost or savings to local governments. The changes are largely clerical in nature, and will not affect local governments.

   C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):
   There is no anticipated cost or savings to small businesses. The changes are largely clerical in nature, and will not affect small businesses.

   D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):
There is no anticipated cost or savings to non-small businesses. The changes are largely clerical in nature, and will not affect non-small businesses.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. The changes are largely clerical in nature.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for any affected persons. The changes are largely clerical in nature.

G) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact this rule may have on businesses (Include the name and title of the department head):

After conducting a thorough analysis, it was determined that this proposed rule amendment will not result in a fiscal impact to businesses. — Jonathan T. Pike, Insurance Commissioner

6. A) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)

R590. Insurance, Administration.

R590-124-1. Authority.
This rule is promulgated by the [insurance commissioner pursuant to [the general authority granted under Subsection 31A-2-201(3) to adopt rules for the implementation of the Utah Insurance Code and under Subsection 31A-23a-402(8) authorizing the commissioner to define unfair methods of competition]Sections 31A-2-201 and 31A-23a-402.

1) [Accurate loss information is necessary in underwriting and rating insurance policies.] The purpose of this rule is to provide for the prompt dissemination of loss information between insurer[s] and [their] insured[s].

2) [This rule applies to every authorized property and liability insurer licensed to do business in Utah writing these lines of insurance commonly identified as commercial property and commercial liability, including workers' compensation but excluding disability, and including every recognized Surplus Line Company and the Workers' Compensation Fund of Utah] This rule applies to an insurer licensed in this state to do the following business:

(a) property and casualty;
(b) commercial property and commercial liability;
(c) workers' compensation; or
(d) surplus lines.

3) This rule does not apply to disability insurance.

Terms used in this rule are defined in Section 31A-1-301. Additional terms are defined as follows:

(1) "Named Insured" shall mean the person(s) or organization(s) listed in the policy declarations as the policyholder, or the legal representative thereof.

(2) "First Named Insured" means the first entity named as a named insured in the declarations of the policy.

(3) "Loss" means the dollar amount paid to an insured or claimant by an insurer on a claim made against an insurance contract.

(4) "Notice of Occurrence" means notice to an insurer of an occurrence that might result in a claim against an insurance contract.

R590-124-4. [Rule] Loss Information.

(1) All insurers issuing policies to which this rule applies shall provide loss information to the first named insured within 30 days of the receipt of a written request from the named insured.

(2) Loss information shall be provided for the three most recent policy years in which coverage was provided, or complete loss information if the policy has been in effect less than three years.

(3) An insurer shall advise the first named insured of the right to request the loss information if the insurer initiates the cancellation or the nonrenewal of a policy.

(4) Information on closed claims where payment was allowed, including date of occurrence, type of loss, and amount of payments.

(5) Information on all open claims, including date of occurrence, type of loss, and amount of payments, if any.

Information on notices of occurrence, including date of occurrence.

The required loss information need only be provided one time in any 12-month period and shall be provided at no cost to the insured.

A loss information request received more than three years after the termination of coverage need not be honored.

(5) The loss information required by this rule shall be provided in a format that is clear and understandable to the insured.

R590-124-5. [Penalties.

If a company fails to provide the information as required by this rule, such failure shall constitute an unfair trade practice as defined in Section 31A-26-303 and Rule R590-190 and shall be subject to the forfeiture and penalty provisions of Section 31A-2-308.

If any provision of this rule or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is for any reason held to be invalid, the remainder of the rule and the application of such provisions shall not be affected thereby.

R590-124-7. Effective Date.

This rule shall be effective July 14, 1988.

If any provision of this rule, Rule R590-124, or its application to any person or situation is held invalid, such invalidity does not affect any other provision of this rule that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application. The remainder of this rule shall be given effect without the invalid provision or application.
