Title

2. Title of rule or section (catchline):
 Authority

Notice Type

3. Type of notice: Amendment

Rule Purpose

4. Purpose of the rule or reason for the change:
 The change removes the reference to 31A-30-116 which was repealed in HB336, Health Reform Amendments, during the 2017 General Legislative Session.

Response Information

5. This change is a response to comments by the Administrative Rules Review Committee.
No

Rule Summary

6. Summary of the rule or change:

The only change in the rule is to remove the reference to 31A-30-116, which was repealed in HB336, Health Reform Amendments, during the 2017 General Legislative Session. However, the Insurance Department still has rulemaking authority for the provisions of this rule which have been reflected in the changes.

Aggregate Cost Information

7. Aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

Affected: No

There is no anticipated cost or savings to the state budget. The change only updates the references of statutory scope for the Insurance Department's authority to promulgate the rule.

B) Local government:

Affected: No

There is no anticipated cost or savings to local government. The change only updates the references of statutory scope for the Insurance Department's authority to promulgate the rule.

C) Small businesses:

Affected: No

("small business" means a business employing fewer than 50 persons)

There is no anticipated cost or savings to small business. The change only updates the references of statutory scope for the Insurance Department's authority to promulgate the rule.

D) Persons other than small businesses, businesses, or local government entities:

Affected: No

("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency)

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. The change only updates the references of statutory scope for the Insurance Department's authority to promulgate the rule.

Compliance Cost Information

8. Compliance costs for affected persons:

There are no compliance costs as a result of this amendment. The change only updates statutory reference for the Insurance Department's authority to promulgate the rule. It requires no action to be taken by any persons.

Department Head Comments

9. A) Comments by the department head on the fiscal impact the rule may have on businesses:

After conducting a thorough analysis, it was determined that this proposed rule will not result in a fiscal impact to businesses. This change was necessary because of legislative action taken during the 2017 General Session. The effects of the change only apply to the Insurance Department, and will have no fiscal impact on it or any other persons in the state.

B) Name and title of department head commenting on the fiscal impacts:

Todd E. Kiser, Insurance Commissioner

Citation Information

10. This rule change is authorized or mandated by state law, and implements or interprets the following state and federal laws.
