FINDINGS OF FACT

I, find by a preponderance of the evidence, the following facts:

Preliminary-Procedural Facts
(Paragraphs 1-7)

1. The Utah Insurance Department (“Department”) is a governmental entity of the State of Utah. The Department as per Utah Code Ann. Section 31A-2-101 is empowered to administer the Insurance Code, Title 31A, Utah Code Ann., 1953, as amended.

(SEE Administrative file.)

4. The Department on or about January 13, 2010[1] in writing denied Applicant’s application for “one or more of the following reasons:

UCA 31A-23a-111-5(b)(iv): Failure to pay a final judgment rendered against you in this state.

UCA 31A-23a-111-5(b)(ix) – providing incomplete in the license application;

UCA 31A-2-202 – failure to submit accurate and complete information to the commissioner;

5. That included in said denial were instructions informing Applicant of his right to an “informal hearing” if a timely request is made in writing within fifteen (15) days.

That based on the preliminary facts as set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 6, immediately above, through means of an May 2, 2011 “Notice of Conversion to Formal Proceedings and Notice of Hearing”, mailed to the Applicant at his referenced address on May 2, 2011, this present formal hearing was set for May 17, 2011 at 9:00 A. M. Mountain Time.

Operative Facts
(Paragraphs 8 -9)

8. The Applicant is a resident of the State of Utah.

9. The Applicant:

a. has been convicted or plead guilty to several misdemeanors including in many instances failures to appear at court hearings on such misdemeanors charges; as well as an outstanding civil judgment.

b. failed to fully disclose such on his December 30, 2010 application.

DISCUSSION-ANALYSIS
(Paragraphs 1-8)

1.a. The Applicant by his failure to appear “concur” with the department’s pro-offer and characterization or interpretation and import of the above referenced operative facts and in substance “concurrent” as to the basic chronology and core facts.

b. The record now being complete sets forth competent and credible evidence for the entry of the following analysis.

2. The question(s) presented is:

a. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence to show that the Department’s January 13, 2010[1] letter of denial of the Applicant's December 30, 2010 application for reinstatement for licensure as a “Resident Producer Individual” was not justified on the record?”;

b. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such January 13, 2010[1] denial?”; and

c. “Whether as per U. A. C. Rule, R590-160-5(10) as to each of the above and foregoing “issues” or “questions” the Applicant has so shown such evidence by a “preponderance of the evidence” sufficient to carry Applicant’s burden of proof?”

3. Primary Applicable Pertinent Statutes, Administrative Rules and Precedent are as follows (although others may be otherwise specifically cited within the body of this “Order on Hearing”):

a. Section 31A-23a-107, Utah Code Ann., reads as follows:

“31A-23a-107. Character requirements.

Each applicant for a license under this chapter shall show to the commissioner that:

(1) the applicant has the intent in good faith, to engage in the type of business that the license applied for would permit;

(2) if a natural person, the applicant is competent and trustworthy; or, if the applicant is an agency, all the partners, directors, or principal officers or persons having comparable powers are trustworthy, and that it will transact business in such a way that all acts that may only be performed by a licensed producer, limited line producer, customer service representative, consultant, managing general agent, or reinsurance intermediary are performed exclusively by natural persons who are licensed under this chapter to transact that type of business and designated on the agency’s license;

(3) the applicant intends to comply with Section 31A-23a-502; and

(4) if a natural person, the applicant is at least 18 years of age.”

4. The Applicant failed to appear and his default is entered accordingly.

5. a. Without belaboring Applicant’s history it is the Applicant’s failure to fully disclose at the time of his filing of his application and his failure to appear at the instant hearing, which he requested, which shows his lack of responsibility revolving around a basic pre-requisite to work in any capacity in any profession or occupation or business venture, especially the insurance business ----- the ability to tell the truth and be honest.

b. The characteristic of trustworthiness is the prime character qualification of Section 31A-23a-107, U. C. A., for all other characteristics requisite to engage in the insurance industry for the protection of the public interest of necessity flow from it. and the very recent December 30, 2010 application failure to fully disclose.

6. The Department in issuing a license to the Applicant or any individual in comparable circumstances to the Applicant would be breaching its responsibilities to the public.

7. a. The Presiding Officer having heard the pro-offer of the Department and reviewed the documentary evidence cannot but only take as true the allegations as presented.

b. Here in the present instance the burden is/was on the Applicant to:

i. Present sufficient evidence to show that the Department's denial was not justified on the record; and

ii. Present sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such denial.

c. This the Applicant by his failure to appear and prosecute her case has failed to do.

d. The Applicant's December 30, 2010 application was properly denied based on the record before the Department.

BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT and discussion-analysis the Presiding Officer enters the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Applicant does not meet the character qualifications for licensing outlined in Section 31A-23a-107, UCA, 1953, as amended, based on his actions and failure to comply with the licensing laws of the State of Utah, namely Sections 31A-23a-111-5(b)(iv), 31A-23a-111-5(b)(ix) and 31A-2-201.

2. The issuance of a “Resident Producer Individual” license would be in contravention of the intent and purpose of the licensing laws of the State of Utah, including Section 31A-23a-107, UCA , which based on “Conclusions of Law” No.1, immediately above, the Department in the practice of good public policy and the protection of the public welfare cannot at this time do.

3. The Department’s “letter of denial” under date of January 13, 2010[1] should be affirmed.

5. The Applicant’s December 30, 2010 application for reinstatement for licensure as a “Resident Producer Individual” should be denied.

AND BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING CONCLUSIONS OF LAW the Presiding Officer enters the following:

ORDER

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The Department’s “letter of denial” under date of January 13, 2010[1] is affirmed;
and

2. The Applicant's December 30, 2010 application for reinstatement for licensure as a "Resident Producer Individual" is denied.
