General Information

2. Rule or section catchline:

R590-283-6. Reporting

3. Purpose of the new rule or reason for the change (Why is the agency submitting this filing?):

The rule is being changed to allow insurers more time to file certain required reports, and to be consistent with other reporting dates.

4. Summary of the new rule or change (What does this filing do? If this is a repeal and reenact, explain the substantive differences between the repealed rule and the reenacted rule):

The rule amendment changes two dates used by insurers when submitting certain required reports to the department.

Fiscal Information

5. Provide an estimate and written explanation of the aggregate anticipated cost or savings to:

A) State budget:

There is no anticipated cost or savings to the state budget. The department will still review the specified reports; it will just be done a month later.

B) Local governments:

There is no anticipated cost or savings to local governments. Local governments are not insurance companies, and so are not required to file reports with the department.

C) Small businesses ("small business" means a business employing 1-49 persons):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. Insurers will still submit the specified reports to the department, iust a month later.

D) Non-small businesses ("non-small business" means a business employing 50 or more persons):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. Insurers will still submit the specified reports to the department, just a month later.

E) Persons other than small businesses, non-small businesses, state, or local government entities ("person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental entity, or public or private organization of any character other than an agency):

There is no anticipated cost or savings to any other persons. Insurers will still submit the specified reports to the department, just a month later.

F) Compliance costs for affected persons (How much will it cost an impacted entity to adhere to this rule or its changes?):

There are no compliance costs for any affected persons. Insurers will still submit the specified reports to the department, just a month later.

G) Regulatory Impact Summary Table (This table only includes fiscal impacts that could be measured. If there are inestimable fiscal impacts, they will not be included in this table. Inestimable impacts will be included in narratives above.)
