UTAH INSURANCE DEPARTMENT

Assistant Attorney General

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and information in the file, the Presiding Officer makes the following Findings of Fact:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. In a letter dated January 31, 2011, addressed to the Director of Market Conduct, a representative of American Family Insurance alleged that the Respondent committed insurance fraud by changing the term of his insureds' policies without the insureds' consent. This practice began around July or August 2010.

2. On March 8, 2011, the American Family representative emailed supporting documents from at least 20 insureds who had not requested a change in policy terms, but whose terms had nonetheless been changed through actions of the Respondent.

3. On March 30, 2011, the market conduct examiner met with Respondent. Respondent admitted to changing auto policies from 6 to 12 months terms. He stated this was a recommendation from his district manager who said it would help in policyholder retention.

4. On April 9, 2011, the Respondent provided a written statement to the examiner and stated his reasoning for changing the policies was to "lock" the rate and delay rate increases for the insureds.

5. Respondent has agreed to an administrative forfeiture of $4,000.00, probation for a period of 24 months, and completion of three additional hours of Ethics CE within 12 months.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and Findings of Fact, the Presiding Officer enters the following Conclusions of Law:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. By submitting changes to policies without the consent of the insureds, Respondent violated Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-402(1)(a)(I).

2. In submitting false or misleading information to an insurer, Respondent calls into question his qualification to hold an insurance agent's license under Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-107(2) of being competent and trustworthy.

3. An administrative forfeiture in the amount of $4,000.00, probation for a period of 24 months, and mandatory completion of 3 additional hours of Ethics CE is appropriate in this case.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Presiding Officer herewith enters the following Order:

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

1. Respondent Jarimy B. Yingling is assessed an administrative forfeiture of $4,000.00, to be paid in six monthly payments. The first payment in the amount of $670.00 is due within 30 days of issuance of this Order. The second through sixth payments of $666.00 each are due 60 days, 90 days, 120 days, 150 days, and 180 days following the date of this Order..

2. Respondent's insurance agent's license is hereby placed on probation for a period of 24 months commencing with the date of this Order. The terms of probation are: Respondent shall pay the forfeiture assessed herein in a timely manner; Respondent shall within 12 months of the date of this Order complete three additional hours of continuing education in Ethics in addition to the continuing education required for the renewal of his license; and Respondent shall have no further violations of the Utah Insurance Code or Rules or of any order of the commissioner.

DATED this 21st day of October, 2011.
