UTAH INSURANCE DEPARTMENT
M. Gale Lemmon, Assistant Attorney General

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and information in the file, the Presiding Officer makes the following Findings of Fact:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. On September 24, 2012, the Department received a referral from the Producer Licensing Director of the Nevada Department of Insurance regarding Respondent's conviction of Attempted Sale of False Identification, a Gross Misdemeanor, and that the Nevada Department of Insurance was in the process of revoking Respondent's Nevada license.

2. On October 3, 2012, correspondence was sent to Respondent Tabisaura requesting an explanation of the felony conviction and why the criminal proceeding had not been reported to the Department as required. The correspondence also requested copies of all court documents related to the matter.

3. On October 4, 2012, Respondent replied with an explanation of his conviction which was listed as an attempt to possess personal identifying information of another. The documents provided to the Department contained a probation requirement that Respondent "abstain from employment where personal identifying information is accessed."

4. On October 22, 2012, the Department sent an email to Respondent suggesting that continuing work in the insurance industry would violate his probation as he would have access to personal identifying information. Respondent was asked to agree to revocation of his license.

5. On October 23, 2012, Respondent agreed to revocation of his Utah license.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation and Findings of Fact, the Presiding Officer enters the following Conclusions of Law:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Respondent's conviction involving dishonesty demonstrates that he does not meet the character requirements to hold an insurance license of being competent and trustworthy under Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-107(2).

2. Respondent's Utah insurance producer's license should be revoked pursuant to Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(i), is unqualified for a license, and -111(5)(b)(xvii), has an insurance license revoked in another jurisdiction.

Based upon the foregoing Stipulation, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Presiding Officer herewith enters the following Order:
