Argument followed.

The Presiding Officer being fully advised in the premises and taking administrative notice of the files and records of the Department, now enters his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order, on behalf of the Department:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I, find by a preponderance of the evidence, the following facts:

Preliminary-Procedural Facts
(Paragraphs 1-7)

1. The Utah Insurance Department (“Department”) is a governmental entity of the State of Utah. The Department as per Utah Code Ann. Section 31A-2-101 is empowered to administer the Insurance Code, Title 31A, Utah Code Ann., 1953, as amended.

2. The Applicant, Lawrence M. Law:

a. is a resident of the State of Utah and maintains a present residence of 129 East Southfield Road, Spanish Fork, Utah 84660; and

b. has not previously been nor is presently licensed by the Department to conduct or be engaged in any capacity in the insurance business in the State of Utah.

3. The Applicant on or about April 3, 2013 filed his application with the Department for issuance of a “Resident Producer Individual License”. (SEE Administrative file.)

4. The Department on or about April 4, 2013 in writing denied Applicant's application for “one or more of the following reasons:

“ UCA 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(iv) - failure to pay a final judgment rendered against you in this state.”

“ UCA 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(xxi) - Failure to comply with an administrative or court order imposing a child support obligation.”

5. That included in said denial were instructions informing Applicant of the right to an “informal hearing” if a timely request is made in writing within fifteen (15) days.

6. The Applicant under date of April 17, 2013 filed a “request for hearing” with the Department. (SEE Administrative file.)

7. That based on the preliminary facts as set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 6, immediately above, through means of an initial May 9, 2013 “Notice of Conversion to Formal Proceedings and Notice of Hearing”, sua sponte, mailed to the Applicant at his referenced address this present formal hearing was held on June 18, 2013 at 9:00 A. M. Mountain Time.

Operative Facts
(Paragraphs 8 -9)

8. The Applicant is a resident of the State of Utah.

9. The Applicant:

a. has at least three (3) outstanding civil judgments; and

b. one (1) outstanding child support matter presently having a balance of approximately $6,800.00 as of of May 1, 2013.

DISCUSSION-ANALYSIS
(Paragraphs 1-7)

1.a. Both the Applicant and the Department in large measure while advocating different characterizations, emphasis or interpretations and import of the above referenced operative facts in substance concurred as to the basic chronology and core facts.

b. The record now being complete sets forth competent and credible evidence for the entry of the following analysis.

2. The question(s) presented is:

a. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence to show that the Department’s April 4, 2013 letter of denial of the Applicant’s April 3, 2013 application for licensure as a “Resident Producer Individual” was not justified on the record?”;

b. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such April 4, 2013 denial?”; and

c. “Whether as per U. A. C. Rule, R590-160-5(10) as to each of the above and foregoing “issues” or “questions” the Applicant has so shown such evidence by a “preponderance of the evidence” sufficient to carry Applicant’s burden of proof?”

3. Primary Applicable Pertinent Statutes, Administrative Rules and Precedent are as follows (although others may be otherwise specifically cited within the body of this “Order on Hearing”):

Section 31A-23a-107, Utah Code Ann., reads as follows:

“31A-23a-107. Character requirements.

Each applicant for a license under this chapter shall show to the commissioner that:

(1) the applicant has the intent in good faith, to engage in the type of business that the license applied for would permit;

(2) if a natural person, the applicant is competent and trustworthy; or, if the applicant is an agency, all the partners, directors, or principal officers or persons having comparable powers are trustworthy, and that it will transact business in such a way that all acts that may only be performed by a licensed producer, limited line producer, customer service representative, consultant, managing general agent, or reinsurance intermediary are performed exclusively by natural persons who are licensed under this chapter to transact that type of business and designated on the agency's license;

(3) the applicant intends to comply with Section 31A-23a-502; and

(4) if a natural person, the applicant is at least 18 years of age.”

4. The Applicant while admitting and acknowledging his child support and civil judgment matters in his application (although there is some question as to how complete such disclosure was) presented at hearing an attitude or approach of minimizing and or blame-shifting which thus revolves around a basic pre-requisite to work in any capacity in any profession or occupation or business venture, especially the insurance business ---
- the ability to tell the truth and be honest.

5. The characteristic of trustworthiness is the prime character qualification of Section 31A-23a-107, U. C. A., for all other characteristics requisite to engage in the insurance industry for the protection of the public interest of necessity flow from it.

6. The Department in licensing the Applicant or any individual in comparable circumstances to the Applicant would be breaching its responsibilities to the public.

7. a. The Presiding Officer having heard the witnesses and reviewed the documentary evidence can only look at and weigh the present evidence before him.

b. Here in the present instance the burden is/was on the Applicant to:

i. Present sufficient evidence to show that the Department's denial was not justified on the record; and

ii. Present sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such denial.

c. This the Applicant has failed to do.

d. The Applicant's April 3, 2013 application was properly denied based on the record before the Department.

BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT and discussion-analysis the Presiding Officer enters the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Applicant's actions in not resolving outstanding judgments, especially in regards to child support, indicates a lack of respect for the rule of law and thereby a lack of being "trustworthy" as required by the character qualifications of Section 31A-23a-107, UCA, 1953, as amended.

2. The Applicant does not meet the character qualifications for licensing outlined in Section 31A-23a-107, UCA, 1953, as amended.

3. The issuance of a "Resident Producer Individual" license would be in contravention of the intent and purpose of Section 31A-23a-107, UCA , which based on "Conclusions of Law" No.s 1 and 2, immediately above, the Department in the practice of good public policy and the protection of the public welfare cannot at this time do.

4. The Department's "letter of denial" under date of April 4, 2013 should be affirmed.

5. The Applicant's April 3, 2013 application for licensure as a "Resident Producer Individual" should be denied.

AND BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

the Presiding Officer enters the following:

ORDER

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The Department's "letter of denial" under date of April 4, 2013 is affirmed,
and

2. The Applicant's April 3, 2013 application for licensure as a "Resident Producer Individual" is denied.

Argument followed.

The Presiding Officer being fully advised in the premises and taking administrative notice of the files and records of the Department, now enters his Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and Order, on behalf of the Department:

FINDINGS OF FACT

I, find by a preponderance of the evidence, the following facts:

Preliminary-Procedural Facts

(Paragraphs 1-7)

1. The Utah Insurance Department (“Department”) is a governmental entity of the State of Utah. The Department as per Utah Code Ann. Section 31A-2-101 is empowered to administer the Insurance Code, Title 31A, Utah Code Ann., 1953, as amended.

2. The Applicant, Ginny L. Wanlass:

a. is a resident of the State of Utah and maintains a present residence of 6638 West Monte Joseph Drive, Herriman, Utah 84096; and

b. has not previously been nor is presently licensed by the Department to conduct or be engaged in any capacity in the insurance business in the State of Utah.

3. The Applicant on or about April 5, 2013 filed her application with the Department for issuance of a “Resident Producer Individual License”. (SEE Administrative file.)

4. The Department on or about April 23, 2013 in writing denied Applicant's application for “one or more of the following reasons:

“ UCA 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(iv) - failure to final judgments rendered against you in this state.”

“ UCA 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(xxii) - Failure to pay state income tax, or comply with an administrative or court order directing payment of state income tax.”

5. That included in said denial were instructions informing Applicant of the right to an “informal hearing” if a timely request is made in writing within fifteen (15) days.

6. The Applicant under date of April 26, 2013 filed a “request for hearing” with the Department. (SEE Administrative file.)

7. That based on the preliminary facts as set forth in Paragraphs 1 through 6, immediately above, through means of an initial May 9, 2013 “Notice of Conversion to Formal Proceedings and Notice of Hearing”, sua sponte, mailed to the Applicant at her referenced address this present formal hearing was held on June 18, 2013 at 1:00 P. M. Mountain Time.

Operative Facts
(Paragraphs 8 -9)

8. The Applicant is a resident of the State of Utah.

9. The Applicant:

a. has an outstanding Utah State Tax Commission lien of approximately $1,800.00 entered as of October 19, 2009.

b. has an outstanding civil small claims court judgment of approximately $1,000.00, including costs entered as of March 26, 2013..

DISCUSSION-ANALYSIS
(Paragraphs 1-7)

1.a. Both the Applicant and the Department in large measure while advocating different characterizations, emphasis or interpretations and import of the above referenced operative facts in substance concurred as to the basic chronology and core facts.

b. The record now being complete sets forth competent and credible evidence for the entry of the following analysis.

2. The question(s) presented is:

a. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence to show that the Department’s April 23, 2013 letter of denial of the Applicant's April 5, 2013 application for licensure as a “Resident Producer Individual” was not justified on the record?”;

b. “Whether the Applicant has presented sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such April 23, 2013 denial?”; and

c. “Whether as per U. A. C. Rule, R590-160-5(10) as to each of the above and foregoing “issues” or “questions” the Applicant has so shown such evidence by a “preponderance of the evidence” sufficient to carry Applicant’s burden of proof?”

3. Primary Applicable Pertinent Statutes, Administrative Rules and Precedent are as follows (although others may be otherwise specifically cited within the body of this “Order on Hearing”):

Section 31A-23a-107, Utah Code Ann., reads as follows:

“31A-23a-107. Character requirements.

Each applicant for a license under this chapter shall show to the commissioner that:

(1) the applicant has the intent in good faith, to engage in the type of business that the license applied for would permit;

(2) if a natural person, the applicant is competent and trustworthy; or, if the applicant is an agency, all the partners, directors, or principal officers or persons having comparable powers are trustworthy, and that it will transact business in such a way that all acts that may only be performed by a licensed producer, limited line producer, customer service representative, consultant, managing general agent, or reinsurance intermediary are performed exclusively by natural persons who are licensed under this chapter to transact that type of business and designated on the agency's license;

(3) the applicant intends to comply with Section 31A-23a-502; and

(4) if a natural person, the applicant is at least 18 years of age.”

4. The Applicant failed to disclose on her application as regards either the tax or small claims judgments and claimed being unaware of either. While a common response at hearing the Presiding Officer upon inquiry is inclined to believe the Applicant. The small claims judgment was a default judgment (which while such may not be at this time be subject to collateral attack in the present proceeding) presents some equitable questions. The state tax lien appears to have been addressed by the Applicant by her entering into a May 16, 2013 payment agreement. The Applicant’s attitude or approach in addressing both situations without minimizing and or blame-shifting is admirable and not the norm of what is typically seen. The Applicant while acknowledging her present difficulties does meet the basic pre-requisite to work in any capacity in any profession or occupation or business venture, especially the insurance business ---- the ability to tell the truth and be honest.

5. The characteristic of trustworthiness is the prime character qualification of Section 31A-23a-107, U. C. A., for all other characteristics requisite to engage in the insurance industry for the protection of the public interest of necessity flow from it.

6. The Department in licensing the Applicant or any individual in comparable circumstances to the Applicant would not be breaching its responsibilities to the public.

7. a. The Presiding Officer having heard the witnesses and reviewed the documentary evidence can only look at and weigh the present evidence before him.

b. Here in the present instance the burden is/was on the Applicant to:

i. Present sufficient evidence to show that the Department's denial was not justified on the record; and

ii. Present sufficient evidence that would justify the reversal of such denial.

c. This the Applicant has done.

d. The Applicant's April 5, 2013 application was inappropriately denied based on the record now before the Department.

BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT and discussion-analysis the Presiding Officer enters the following:

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Applicant's past difficulties while just recently being addressed are being addressed responsibly by the Applicant and indicate respect for the rule of law and thereby shows the Applicant being "trustworthy" as required by the character qualifications of Section 31A-23a-107, UCA, 1953, as amended.

2. The Applicant meets the character qualifications for licensing outlined in Section 31A-23a-107, UCA, 1953, as amended.

3. The issuance of a "Resident Producer Individual" license would not be in contravention of the intent and purpose of Section 31A-23a-107, UCA , which based on "Conclusions of Law" No.s 1 and 2, immediately above, the Department in the practice of good public policy and the protection of the public welfare should at this time do.

4. The Department's "letter of denial" under date of April 23, 2013 should be modified.

5. The Applicant's April 5, 2013 application for licensure as a "Resident Producer Individual" should be granted, subject to certain terms and conditions.

AND BASED ON THE ABOVE AND FOREGOING CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

the Presiding Officer enters the following:

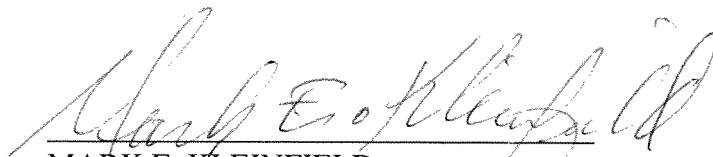

ORDER

WHEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The Department's "letter of denial" under date of April 23, 2013 is modified;
and
2. The Applicant's April 5, 2013 application for licensure as a "Resident Producer Individual" is granted, subject to the Applicant fully complying with her payment agreement with the Utah State Tax Commission and resolution of the outstanding small claims judgment by satisfaction of said default judgment or setting aside of the present default judgment and trial on the merits and if a judgment being entered against the Applicant on the merits the satisfaction of said judgment, both to be accomplished on or before December 31, 2014, with a probation of such issued "Resident Producer Individual" to be for a term of eighteen (18) months.
