Failure to obey the Order may subject you to further penalties that include forfeitures of up to $2,500 per violation, license suspension or revocation, further enforcement action before the Utah District Court where forfeitures of up to $10,000 may be imposed. If you are licensed in other jurisdictions, you may be required to report this proceeding to those jurisdictions.

DECLARATION

Under criminal penalty of Utah law, I, Randy Overstreet, declare the following:

1. I am currently employed as Director of the Producer Licensing Division with the Utah Insurance Department where my responsibilities include investigating and enforcing Utah insurance laws.

2. I submit this Declaration as the basis for issuing the Notice of Agency Action and Order against Michael W. Hodson ("Respondent") to which this Declaration is attached.

3. Based on my personal knowledge and/or based on the facts appearing in the Department's records and files, the following facts are true:

a. On November 9, 2018, the Department received an online license application from Respondent for a resident limited line producer individual insurance license.

Respondent answered "yes" to the question that asked whether he had ever been convicted of a felony. Respondent answered "no" to the question that asked whether he had ever been convicted of a misdemeanor.

b. On August 22, 2005, Respondent was convicted of issuing a bad check $1000 - $5000, a third degree felony. Case no. 041905847, State of Utah vs. Michael W. Hodson.

c. On August 22, 2005, Respondent was convicted of issuing a bad check $1000 - $5000, a third degree felony. Case no. 041905844, State of Utah vs. Michael W. Hodson.

d. On August 22, 2005, Respondent was convicted of communications fraud, a second degree felony. Case no. 041905840, State of Utah vs. Michael W. Hodson.

e. On August 22, 2005, Respondent was convicted of communications fraud, a second degree felony. Case no. 041905839, State of Utah vs. Michael W. Hodson.

f. On August 22, 2005, Respondent was convicted two counts of illegal possession/use of controlled substance, a third degree felony. Case no. 051902403, State of Utah vs. Michael William Hodson.

g. On January 14, 2008, Respondent was convicted of possession of drug paraphernalia, a class B misdemeanor. Case no. 071700168, State of Utah v. Michael W. Hodson.

h. On November 21, 2018 and March 4, 2018, I informed Respondent by email of the requirement to obtain written consent of the insurance commissioner due to having a felony conviction on record involving dishonesty or breach of trust. I also emailed instructions to Respondent on how to apply for this written consent and informed him that the Department would be unable to issue a license without this written consent.

4. The above declared facts demonstrate that the following Utah insurance laws were not complied with:

a. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(xiv)(A), convicted of a felony;

b. Utah Code § 31A-23A-111(5)(b) authorizes the Commissioner to act in compliance with the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, 18 U.S.C. § 1033. Having been convicted of a felony involving dishonesty or breach of trust and having failed to obtain from the Commissioner the required written consent to engage or participate in the business of insurance, Respondent is prohibited from engaging in the business of insurance pursuant to Utah Code § 31A-2-308 and 18 U.S.C. § 1033(e)(2).

c. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-105(2)(b)(ii), failing to report at the time of filing the license application a misdemeanor criminal prosecution taken against Respondent;

d. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(ix), providing incorrect, misleading, or materially untrue information in the license application by answering “no” to the question regarding being convicted of a misdemeanor;

e. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-107(2)(a)(ii), failing to meet the trustworthy character requirement; and

f. Utah Code Ann. § 31A-23a-111(5)(b)(i), unqualified for a license under Utah Code Ann § 31A-23a-104, 105, or 107.

5. Based on the facts and law set forth above, Respondent’s application for an individual insurance license should be denied.

DATED this 7th day of April, 2019.

Randy Overstreet, Director
Producer Licensing Division
Utah Insurance Department
