| UTAH INSURANCE DEPARTMENT, Complainant, v. THEDDEUS STYLES, Respondent. | ORDER Docket No. 2020-4221 |
|---|--|

This matter came before the Presiding Officer, Deputy Insurance Commissioner Reed Stringham, on August 27, 2020 for a telephone prehearing conference. Present were Helen Frohlich, Assistant Attorney General for the Utah Insurance Department, William Stimpson, Utah Insurance Department, and Theddues Styles, Respondent,

The Presiding Officer reviewed the procedural history of the case.

Ms. Frohlich indicated that a hearing would not be necessary because the parties had agreed to settle the case. In exchange for the Department withdrawing its request to revoke Mr. Styles's license, Mr. Styles agreed to submit to a $500 forfeiture for the remaining violations of failing to respond to an inquiry of the commissioner and failure to maintain current contact information with the Department. Payments on the forfeiture could be made over the next three months. Mr. Styles verbally confirmed the terms of the stipulation.

Based upon the stipulation of the parties, the Presiding Officer enters the following Order:

ORDER

1. Respondent, Theddeus Styles, shall pay a forfeiture of $500 for failing to respond promptly to a reasonable written inquiry from the Commissioner (Utah Code § 31A-2-202(4)(a)) and for failing to maintain current contact information with the Department (Utah Code § 31A-23a-412(1)).

2. Respondent may make payments on the forfeiture over the next three months.

DATED this 2 day of SEPTEMBER, 2020.
